

FUTURE TENSES

1) Present continuous + TIME WORD

Form:

AM / IS / ARE + V-ing

Use:

- Plans arranged for a particular time in the future
- A future action that is so close to the present.

E.g. This evening I'm going to the cinema to watch 'Avatar' with Mery.

2) Be going to

Form:

AM / IS / ARE + GOING TO + V

Use:

- Planned future action
- To talk about the results of things happening now (predictions based on present evidence)
- For neutral statements about the future

E.g. Next month I'm going to go to the dentist. // Look at the sky! It's going to rain!

3) Simple Present

Form:

Base form of the verb (3rd person singular +-s/-es)

Auxiliary DO / DOES for negatives and questions

Use:

- To describe an organized future timetable
- Clauses of time and condition combined with the future simple (WHEN + simple present)

E.g. The train leaves at 4 pm. // My English class starts at 9 am.

4) Future Simple

Form:

WILL + V

Use:

- Certain / uncertain statements about the future (predictions with NO EVIDENCE)
- Sudden decision (≠/≠ going to)
- To show willingness
- Offers and promises

E.g. I think tomorrow it will rain. // I'll help you with your bags.

5) Future Continuous

Form:

WILL + BE + V-ing

Use:

- Actions / events that will be in progress at some time in the future
- Activity / state that covers the whole of a future time
- Future event that is already arranged or which is part of a regular routine
- To refer to the present (guessing what people are doing)

E.g. By this time tomorrow she'll be travelling to Berlin.

Will she be travelling to Berlin...?

6) Future Perfect Simple

Form:

WILL + HAVE + past participle

Use:

- To look ahead to a time in the future when an expected event will be in the past

E.g. By the end of this month I'll have finished my degree.

Will you have finished your degree by the end of this month?
